

OKAYAMA UNIV.

Okayama University Graduate School of Medicine,
Dentistry and Pharmaceutical Sciences
Department of General Medicine

Competency Development for General Physician

Science is also required for General Physician.

In this course, you can develop an inquiring mind through Basic or Clinical Research.

【The Goals】

1. Broaden the perspective as a clinician through the experience of Basic/ Clinical Research
2. Interpret and use appropriately the Evidence from the medical research
3. Apply the product of “Translational Research” in a clinical setting

Training of General Physician with Research Mind

The Research Theme

- Fever of Unknown Origin and Inflammatory Disease
- Pathophysiology of Endocrine Metabolic Disorders
- Availability of laboratory markers for General practice
- Pathophysiology of Osteoporosis
- Availability of Self-rating Depression Scale for Diabetic Patients
- Insomnia in General Medicine
- Genetic Analysis and Clinical Background of Drug Resistant Bacteria
- Diagnosis and Treatment of IgG4-Related Disease
- Kampo Medicines
- Quantitative and Qualitative Analysis of Clinical Residents' Empathy
- Interventional Study of the Simulated Medical Education

